THE LINDLEY PARK NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER
www.lindleyparknc.com

We're electing new Lindley Park Neighborhood Association officers at our general meeting on January 28, 2014.

The Vice Chairman position is currently open but nominations for any position can be made from the floor at the meeting. And all LPNA committees are looking for enthusiastic volunteers to help. But what exactly do these folks do? Basically, the Chairperson presides over general and executive meetings (eleven annually) and the Vice Chair fills in if the Chairperson is absent. The Secretary records meeting minutes, and the Treasurer maintains our bank account. A full list of Association officer positions and responsibilities are listed below, check 'em out.

If you care about the future of Lindley Park and have a willingness to get involved, consider joining as an association officer or committee member. You will 1) meet some great folks, 2) learn a lot about your neighborhood, 3) make a difference, and 4) have fun! If you have questions or need more information, please email us at lpnagso@gmail.com.

Chairman: Presides over all meetings which include monthly board meetings and 3 times a year General Member meetings. Acts as liaison with other groups who impact and or are impacted by the Lindley Park neighborhood. Responsible for establishing or maintaining standing committees and neighborhood district representatives. Sets the tone for Association communication through the email List Serve, Facebook page, and website.

Vice Chairman: Fills in for Chairman as needed. Assists with standing committees as needed. This position is often training ground for the Chairman role and serves in various ways.

Secretary: Attends all meetings, records notes and submits minutes for approval. Assists Chairman with prior meeting communication and is responsible for official Association correspondence.

Treasurer: Custodian of the Association's funds. Maintains bank accounts, pays invoices, and collects money from members and for fundraising activities. Prepares annual budget with Chairman and gives regular updates at meetings.

Parliamentarian: Advises the presiding officer and Association members on their respective parliamentary rights as needed.

There shall be an executive board which shall consist of the five officers, the immediate past chairman of the Association, the chairmen of the standing committees, and a district representative for each of the neighborhood districts as established by the Executive Board. The officers and other members of the Executive Board shall be elected from the general membership at the first meeting of each calendar year.

WE WANT YOU!

FROM THE CHAIR

As the holidays are upon us, we need to be reminded that the two times of year that are the most common to be the victim of a break-in is 1) summer and 2) Christmas. A quick Google search for "Christmas Burglaries" brings up story after story of families that have had their season ruined. So how can we protect ourselves? We have written several times in the past about how to keep your home in a condition that deters thieves. Stephen Way, a resident of Lindley Park, our Public Safety Chair and an employee of GPD's CSI, has written about this and offered to help educate people as well. If you haven't already looked at www.crimemapping.com, you need to. It is a site set up for the GPD that maps all crimes and gives you a feel for what to look out for in Lindley Park and the rest of the city. Lastly, the neighborhood List Serve is there to help in situations where you feel something just isn't right. In the past, this has been pushy door to door salespeople or people seeming to "wander" the neighborhood. Burglaries have been interrupted because concerned neighbors took the time to raise the alarm. Remember, it can be anything that causes concern. When we have had the GPD come and talk to us in the past, they stress to not wait – if your gut is telling you that something isn't right, call 911 first and then send a note to lpnagso@gmail.com. We will send a note out to more than 200 neighbors right away. Together we can help keep our neighborhood safe this holiday season.

GIVING THANKS

As the year draws to an end, and the last Lindley Park Columns for the year goes to press, this is the perfect time to say thank you to those who make the Columns possible. For more than 15 years, the Lindley Park Columns has played a crucial role in the communication of important information about social activities, zoning and safety issues that impact the neighborhood. Many residents have commented that the Columns is the glue that holds the neighborhood together. Before the Internet, web pages, and FACEBOOK, the only other ways to effectively communicate with Lindley Park residents was by phone or in person or the Columns. Printing a 12 page newsletter is expensive. Each issues costs about $600 to print 1,200 copies. While more and more neighborhood information, including the Columns can be disseminated via our List Serve or the neighborhood's FACEBOOK page – a printed version of the Columns is still important. To pay for the newsletter, the Columns sells advertising. Many of the advertisers you see in the Columns have been advertising since the beginning. Most are locally owned small businesses like Gene's Barber, Spring Garden Bakery, and Pepper Moon Catering. Others are newer businesses like Hops Burger Bar, Furry Godmothers Pet Sitting and RealScience. To all of the advertisers, past and present we say thank you. We hope you will continue to support the neighborhood via the Columns.

Getting the Columns newsletter ready to go to press is not an easy task that can be done by one person. Jeri Henderson, newsletter content coordinator, Diane Gackenbach Smith, newsletter advertising coordinator, Jessica Beamon, Michael Van Patter, layout and design coordinators and Larry Barnes – Chair, spend countless hours making sure we deliver a quality publication to our neighbors. Many thanks.

Other "unsung heroes" are the folks who deliver the Columns to the doorsteps of our residents. There have been several times these carriers have received the newsletter on a Friday and were asked to get their copies out over the weekend due to time sensitive info like City Zoning Commission and City Council Meetings that residents needed to attend. To the carriers listed below and to former carriers – we say thanks so very much and Happy Holidays to all!

Newsletter Carriers:

HOPE MULTIPLIES

We saw the first HOPE signs when we were looking for a house in Lindley Park. The colors, artistic spirit and uplifting sentiment really spoke to us and confirmed our feeling about the neighborhood. We got our very own sign as a housewarming gift (thanks Bill and Patti!) and from that point, we were hooked!

The HOPE sign was the creative vision of our talented, inspiring neighbor Lucy "Goosey" Newsom (who, at age 13, is also the editor of young people's neighborhood newspaper The Lindley Park Gazette) and started out in 2008. Lucy's vision was that instead of having competing or divisive signs during elections, perhaps a simple sign of HOPE was something we could all agree on. In the fall of 2008, Lucy, then eight years old, gathered a wagon load of scrap wood and painted the first HOPE signs with her friends and family to hand out at a neighborhood picnic. Over the years, Lucy's idea has expanded to include many positive messages and many fans who have helped create over 2,000 signs that are sprinkled throughout Lindley Park and beyond.

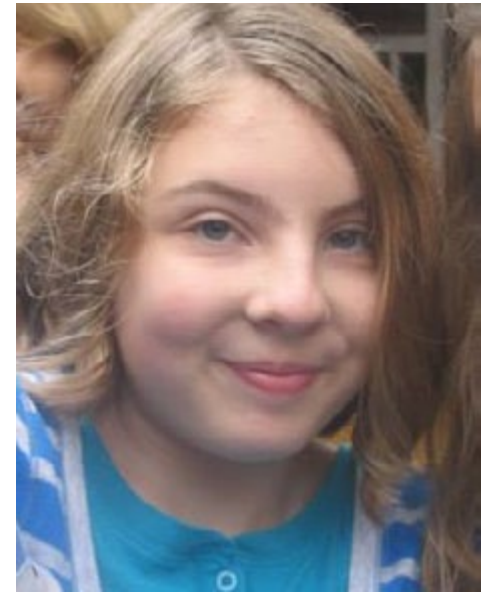

Lucy's proud mom Kathy says, "I believe that young people have so many amazing ideas and if we support them, they truly can change the world!" Or at least the neighborhood.

So when you see these happy signs in the neighborhood, think of how one person can inspire many and how HOPE is a universal message for the holidays and all year long.

LPNA IS 20, SO LET'S CELEBRATE

Lindley Park Neighborhood Association was created 20 years ago by a group of concerned, enthusiastic neighbors. To celebrate this milestone and recognize the individuals who have helped unite Lindley Park, we are having a party! Mark your calendar for February 1 and join us at the Rec Center from 1-3 pm. Festivities will include a small recognition ceremony, cake and a few surprises. Don't miss this opportunity to have some fun, meet your neighbors and see how much LPNA has grown and served our neighborhood for over 20 years.

LINDLEY ELEMENTARY - A TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE

In the past two years Helene Romer-Speaks and I have reconnected. We are Lindley alumni from the 1960s – Helene (1962-1968) and myself (1961-1967). We attended the recent 85th anniversary of Lindley Elementary and had a wonderful time seeing the school again. I had been back twice since “graduating” from Lindley (and I voted there for a number of years) but I don’t think Helene had been back at all.

The school had the same familiar and welcoming atmosphere we remembered. Both of us agree that we LOVED Lindley Elementary and are less attached to our junior high and senior high schools. After we registered, just about the first place we went was by Mrs. Booker’s classroom; she was our first grade teacher. We had two more of the same teachers: Mrs. Stewart for second grade and Mrs. Bullock for third grade. For fourth grade, I had Mrs. Ariail and Helene had Mrs. Eargle, in fifth grade, Helene had Mrs. Thomas and I had Mrs. Lineberry and for sixth, I had Ms. Kern and Helene had Ms. Laughter. We found Mrs. Stewart’s and Mrs. Bullock’s classrooms and the Principal’s Office. Mr. Gardner was the principal for the entire time we were at Lindley. Mrs. Bullock was a favorite teacher for both of us – she let us make our own class book with our stories, poems and artwork. I still have my mimeographed copy!

And we both remembered Mrs. Cooper, the librarian. The Library was upstairs in the 1960s but now Lindley boasts a lovely new Media Center on the first floor – wouldn’t Mrs. Cooper have loved that? We were delighted to see the restored auditorium – it looked a little smaller than we remembered! We ventured down to the gymnasium, where Mr. Cox, a roving physical educational instructor for the system, was remembered, and then to the cafeteria. The gym looked the same and the cafeteria nearly the same – the lunch line was the same but the water fixture was gone where you waited in line. For us (and I expect many Lindley alums), the feature we most missed were the “grass steps.” For those new to the neighborhood, it was an amphitheatre which would seat the entire student body. May Day programs would be presented there.

Helene and I were not in the same grade during our Lindley years. We were friends because she lived nearby one of the girls in my class, Allison Sadler. And yes, we would play with our Barbie dolls at Allison’s! Circumstances brought us back together in our late 50s and we believe that our shared back ground at Lindley is the basis for our friendship today. Our respective parents bought homes in Lindley Park with the idea that we would both walk to school – and we did! It was a “neighborhood school” in the best sense of that term. And we both had memories of Fifth Grade Camp where the two fifth grade classes would spend a week down at William B. Umstead State Park in Raleigh.

We were determined to “relive” our Lindley days. This is why Helene and her husband Bobby Speaks drove from their home in Charlotte and I hurried home from attending Friends Meeting on Sunday, September 29th, to meet them and attend the reunion together. We are now the proud new owners of Lindley Elementary School tee-shirts and we have linked our Harris Teeter cards to help Lindley (the number is 2872 if anyone else would like to help our neighborhood school). We had such fun looking at the class pictures and even found ours. Helene has her things in a nice, neat scrapbook. Mine are “who knows where?” but I intend to find my Lindley memorabilia and get in all in one place and eventually donate it to the school. It warmed our hearts to see the school we loved so much flourishing and especially to see the students and parents of today taking the same interest in it that our families did.

LITTLE FREE LIBRARY COMING TO LINDLEY PARK

Lindley Park will soon have its own branches of the Little Free Library. The free library boxes will be located on Walker Avenue near the corner of Walker and Westdale Place.

TAKE A BOOK; RETURN A BOOK

Little Free Library, is a “take a book, return a book” site where neighbors share their favorite literature and stories. In its most basic form, a Little Free Library is a box full of books where anyone may stop by and pick up a book (or two) and bring back another book to share.

The first Little Free Library was started in 2009 by Todd Bol of Hudson, Wisconsin. His first library was built as a tribute to his mother, a former school teacher who loved reading. He filled it with books and put it on a post in his front yard. His neighbors and friends loved it. He built several more and gave them away. Each one had a sign that said FREE BOOKS.

By 2011 local, regional and national media attention to the backyard project turned it into a movement.

In May 2012 Little Free Library was officially established as a nonprofit corporation. By the end of 2013 it is estimated there will be 15,000 Little Free Libraries in 55 countries.

The mission of The Little Free Library is:

- To promote literacy and the love of reading by building free book exchanges worldwide.
- To build a sense of community as we share skills, creativity and wisdom across generations.

The Lindley Park Little Free Library will have two separate book boxes – one for adult books and a separate “children’s library” for kids.

WANT TO HELP?

Lindley Park resident Carol Groover has sponsored the charter for the neighborhood’s Little Free Library. She is in the process of gathering donated books to fill the library boxes and welcomes your donations. The Little Free Library offers a way to share good things to read – favorite books from your childhood or books you would recommend to friends; books that teach, intrigue and engage you. Everyone can help by keeping this collection stocked with good reading material. You can drop off books to Carol at 423 Westdale Place (or leave them on her porch) or call Carol at 580-0978 or e-mail her at cgroover@triad.rr.com and she will pick them up. The official library boxes should be in place on Walker Avenue by the sidewalk by mid-December.

If you would like to know more about Little Free Library, please visit www.littlefreelibrary.org

Lindley Park Tree Removal

Have you seen trees in the park with white markings or recently cut tree stumps and wondered what's up? According to LPNA Parks & Rec officer Barry Goldman, the City of Greensboro determined these trees are diseased or unsafe and removal is currently under way. The project is being overseen and completed by the City so we know the job will be done right.

NEWS FROM LINDLEY ELEMENTARY

Enrollment at Lindley is Up! We have more kids at Lindley than in the last 10 years – the news is out! People are choosing Lindley – which is terrific. If you are looking for ways to assist the school as a reading buddy, as a lunch buddy, as part of our backpack program – or anything else you have in mind – please contact a member of our PTA listed on the Lindley Elementary website. If you are pressed for time, you may also consider making a one-time, tax-deductible gift. If Kiosco is in your regular restaurant rotation, make a note of the 2nd Wednesday of each month – they donate 10% of all proceeds from 5-9pm to Lindley Elementary. Chick fil-A donates 10% of receipts from 5-7:30pm on the first Thursday, every other month – watch for the signs posted around Lindley.

We'd like to thank our wonderful neighbors and business owners for demonstrating tremendous support of our annual Fun Run. We raised close to our goal amount towards new interactive playground equipment. We also applied for and were awarded a supplemental grant for our playground and look forward to finalizing our plans and breaking ground during 2014.

We had our first ever school Veteran's Day parade recognizing staff and a couple of parents who are veterans. The children lined the halls with drawings, posters and flags bringing tears to many eyes. We plan to make this an annual event. November 21st was Community Reader Day at Lindley and many of you were able to attend and read with a class. This is a special day during Literacy Week and Book Fair – and in some cases the first time our community leaders have been in an elementary school classroom since they were students. We appreciate our partnership with Lindley Park!

We appreciate the support of our neighbors and believe that strong neighborhood schools = strong neighborhoods = strong neighborhood schools. If you're looking for ways to support and connect with Lindley Elementary, here are a few ways:

- Link your Harris Teeter VIC card- VIC 2872. You can do this at the store or online <http://tinyurl.com/lindleyionsHT>

- Collect Box Tops and Labels for Education for Lindley. You may turn them into the office or give them to a Lindley family. Thank you! These box tops become real money to help programs at Lindley.

Upcoming Events:

- 1/6 – first day back after winter break
- 1/8 – Kiosco Night 5-9pm
- 1/20 – MLK Jr. holiday, no school
- 1/23-24 – teacher work days, no school
